Signed and Numbered Limited Edition Prints

"Watering the Remuda"

"Branding Corral"

An original oil painting from J.N. Swanson (1927-2014) is hard to come by. Jack just didn't turn out that many. However, high-quality signed prints, such as these, are a great value for anyone to collect—and help a very good cause. One hundred percent of the proceeds from print sales go to the Range Conservation Foundation, which is dedicated to intelligent use of natural resources.

J.N. Swanson's paintings are in the permanent collections of many major galleries and museums. One of his original oils hung in Ronald Reagan's White House.

To aid the foundation, the artist selected favorite images from his personal collection. They have never before been offered as prints and are not available through galleries or any other source. You may purchase any print for $250 each. Only 125 of each have been produced, personally signed and numbered by the artist. Actual image sizes vary slightly to conform to the original and are printed on 24"x18" archival paper. Each includes a Certificate of Authenticity signed by the artist. Satisfaction is guaranteed. All proceeds will benefit RCF.

Direct donations (no print involved) to nonprofit RCF are appreciated and tax-deductible (IRS Tax ID# 20-1601536).
