

Outback Roundup 2010

THE WINNERS

Photographers with hundreds of entries from 20 states competed for the best prizes in this year's contest, which was judged by landscape photographer Linda Dufurrena, news photographer Marilyn Newton and RANGE publisher C.J. Hadley. Winners were announced at Shooting the West in Winnemucca, Nev., last March. Entry blanks for Outback Roundup 2011 will be included in our Fall 2010 issue and will be available online at www.rangemagazine.com in August.

First Place, $100
"First trim, Rogue River Valley, Oregon."
Rick Ponte, Merlin, Oregon

*Best of Show, $150
"Dottie and Della making biscuits at the cook shed, Sierra Foothills, California."
Larry Angier, Jackson, California*

*Second Place, $75 “Warren Clayton Johnson, age 12, with his 4-H prize-winning chicken
at the Modoc County Fair in 2009.”
Larry Turner, Malin, Oregon*

*Fifth Place, $35 “Mattley Dell’Orto makes sparks fly, 110 Ranch,
Jackson Valley, California.”
Carolyn Fox,
Jackson, California*

*Third Place, $50
"Felted forky, northeastern Nevada."
Mark Hayward, Spring Creek, Nevada*

*Sixth Place, $30
"Cowboys take a head count as cattle are loaded on a truck bound for Utah."
Andrea Scott, Greenleaf, Idaho*

*Fourth Place, $40
"Professor Stanley. Our Polish rooster always flips his head feathers around before he crows. It reminds me of an old college professor I once had."
Jodi Esplin, Spring Creek, Nevada*