

OUTBACK ROUNDUP 2012 MERIT WINNERS

More winners from our first-ever, all-digital photo contest, which brought in hundreds of images from photographers in 17 states. There were so many good photographs entered, and so few winning slots, that several contest entries were included in the RANGE 2013 calendar, our new book, “Go West,” and editions of the magazine. (See page 3 for another great merit winner.)

Contest rules for Outback Roundup 2013 are on page 57. There’s money, and plenty of options for fame and glory! Gather your best now, and we’ll show the winners at Shooting the West in Winnemucca, Nev., next spring, and in our Summer 2013 issue. Deadline is February 8.
