

One of the 142 images in this extraordinary new book.

Yosemite National Park, California.

© David Muench

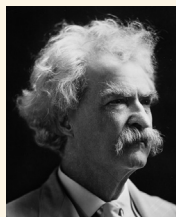

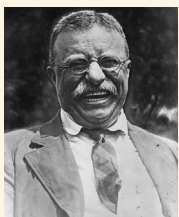

See page 40 for the “West Meets West” special offer!

“The Magnificent American West”

“A treasure trove of history and contemporary.”

“Magnificent photos and magnificent writing. It’s rich stuff.”

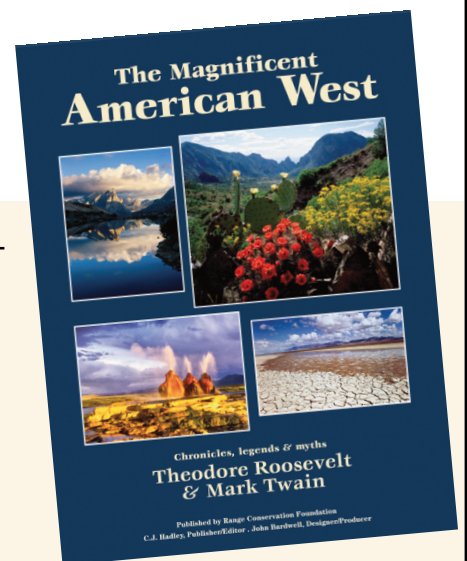

“The book is awesome and extremely well done.”

Legends and myths! Enjoy hours discovering award-winning photographers and the words of Theodore Roosevelt and Mark Twain. As young men, both went west for different reasons and wrote about it from very different perspectives.

Roosevelt, serious, eloquent and high-minded, and Twain, rustic, homespun and humorous, were prolific writers and lecturers who entertained and informed a wide audience with very divergent styles.

This will be a great gift for anyone who cares (or should) about the American West. And you might want a copy for yourself!

Retail price $50

Your price:

22% OFF

ORDER NOW

Only $39 FREE SHIPPING

Nevada residents must add 7% tax

RANGE

I-800-RANGE-4-U

“The Magnificent American West” is published by the nonprofit Range Conservation Foundation and offered through RANGE magazine.